Updated September 21, 2019. A causal essay is much like a cause-and-effect essay, but there may be a subtle difference in the minds of some instructors who use the term "causal essay" for complex topics and "cause-and-effect essay" for smaller or more straightforward papers. However, both terms describe essentially the same type of essay and the goal of each is the same: to come up with a list of events or factors (causes) that bring about a certain outcome (effect).

Causal Analysis Essay Definition. A causal analysis essay is a paper that responds to the question "Why?". In a lot of situations, the writer isn't able to offer a definite response to this question. If that is the case, the essay is referred to as a "hypothesizing about causes" paper. When drafting this type of essay, the writer needs to describe the events, followed by an iteration of the response (also referred to as thesis) regarding the cause.
