This Chronicles of St. Mary's short story plugs a hole in the narrative that is touched upon in the main books, featuring our heroes (Max, Peterson, and Markham, obviously) on a rescue mission. Christmas Eve seemed like an odd time for such an attempt, but Taylor's deft use of (literal) deus ex machina made for (literal) perfect timing on all accounts.

Jody Taylor is the author of a book series The Chronicles of St. Mary's - a cool, time traveling series. I am not familiar with the stories, but this short story has interested me: Christmas Present. It's a very brief tale of how a woman and her friends decide that a friend's unhappy holiday can not continue.
