This book was an honest and well written description of life on HMS Fearless as it headed off to the Falklands War. The diary of an 18 year old was stark and moving at times with a reminder of the struggle to regain the Falkland Islands from Argentina. The detail brought the events to life and brings back all the news reports at the time.

JY: And yet, the name of the book is, "Fearless - Diary of a Badass Reporter." And at various times throughout the book, you talk about how fear got into your head despite this demeanor. Here's this gladiator and she's not gonna take any crap but "Fearless" is moving past that. So that would be taking it to the next step.
