Major Love is Andy and April's story. And once again, I fell head over heels for these characters. Kate did however throw me a little bit of a curve ball. While I love her heroes, it is usually her heroine who reels me in. She writes strong, feisty, opinionated females and I am extremely drawn to them. This time though, it was Andy. Good lord ...

But while two balls in play was chaotic enough, what if there were actually three balls involved in the play? Yes, there exists a third-ball theory. Where the original story has Dark intercepting the ball before it reached Pieper, the public address announcer, Anderson has a different version of events.

When two balls were in play at the same time | MLB.com

Since balls are frequently fouled off into the stands by batters and usually discarded after hitting the dirt, the average baseball has a game life of just a few pitches. Even balls that remain in play are often inspected by umpires if they are hit hard enough. An estimated eight to 10 dozen balls are used in a nine-inning game.
