Queen of Scots: The True Life of Mary Stuart by John Guy

And I drove all night. Baby my love goes on, Choices I made were wrong, You are where I belong, You're all I've got, my heart is not my own. Not my own. I left my home, I left my life, I left my senses. And I drove all night, I see it now, it's crystal clear, what I needed most.

Ronan Keating - My Heart Is Not My Own Lyrics | MetroLyrics

My heart improved, but it wasn't exactly smooth sailing. Over the next year or so, I experienced frequent skips, jumps, and flutters (doctors label them "palpitations") of the heart rhythm. I could feel them in my chest and throat.
