"Yes. It wasn't good. It wasn't bad. It was just a day filled with a little bit of everything, and you don't share a day with someone you don't like." His reasoning is simple enough, and sounds so sweet coming from this gruff baseball player who is a mixture of so many things. "And because we danced. We drank. We sulked.

When The Player released in April I was unable to read it because my personal life was out of control. I knew that it was going to be a part of a duet and decided to wait to read it closer to the second book's release. I read this book days before the second book released and was completely mesmerized with this story.
