The Resurrection Of The Body

The resurrection of the body is probably the most debated teaching in the Bible. During Christ's time, there were those who did not believe in the resurrection, spirits or angels. Jesus made many arguments for the resurrection of the dead which were later expounded upon by the Apostles. The Apostles clearly taught that believers will be raised.

The resurrection of the body - Apostles Creed

The resurrection of the body is an essential Christian doctrine, as the apostle Paul declares: "[I]f the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised. If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins.

What the Early Church Believed: Resurrection of the Body ...

Belief in the resurrection of the body already existed in Christ's time among the Pharisees. Jesus performed miracles of raising the dead to life as symbols of his future Resurrection, and he associated these events with himself: "I am the resurrection and the life" (Jn 11:25). Christ, "the first-born from the dead" (Col 1:18), is the principle of our own resurrection, even now by the justification of our souls (cf. Rom 6:4), and one day by the new life he will impart to our bodies ...

By "the resurrection of the body" is meant that at the end of the world the bodies of all men will rise from the earth and be united again to their souls, nevermore to be separated. (a) No man knows when the world will end.

The Resurrection of the Body | EWTN

Upon the death of the body, the spirit of a believer takes departure, closing the senses of the body until the day of its resurrection. Immediately upon the death of our bodies, we leave the flesh, “to depart, and to be with Christ” (Philippians 1:23), “waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body” (Romans 8:23).

The Resurrection Body: Part 1 In this article, Ken Boa discusses some of the Scriptural evidence for the resurrection body, including the resurrected body of Christ (the pattern for the believer’s resurrected body). Part 2 examines the resurrected body of the believer and its implications.¹ The Bible gives us a glimpse into eternity to come.

The Resurrection Body: Part 1 | Ken Boa

Since Christ's resurrection is the pattern of our resurrection, we will therefore be raised in a physical body as well. Third, Romans 8:21-23 speaks of waiting for "the redemption of our bodies" (v. 23). Our bodies are not going to be thrown away. They are going to be renewed, restored, revitalized.

Will the Resurrection of the Body Be a Physical ...

Contrasting our earthly bodies with the splendor of our heavenly (resurrected) bodies, Paul says, “The body that is sown is perishable, it is raised imperishable; it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power; it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body” (vv. 42-44, emphasis added). In short, our resurrected bodies are spiritual, imperishable, and raised in glory and power.

How will our resurrection body be different from our ...

Resurrection or anastasis is the concept of coming back to life after death. In a number of religions, a dying-and-rising god is a deity which dies and resurrects. Reincarnation is a similar process hypothesized by other religions, which involves the same person or deity coming back to live in a different body, rather than the same one.. The resurrection of the dead is a standard eschatological ...
